

1208 ROSE CREEK DR. WOODSTOCK, GA 30189
PHONE: 770-924-7286 GSLUTHERAN.ORG

October 12, 2018

Dear Members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church,

The Bi-Annual Meeting of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Woodstock, Georgia, will be Sunday, November 11, following the 10:00am worship service. The agenda includes:

- Consecration of Stewardship Commitments
- Election of Congregation Council Members
- Presentation on Fellowship Hall and Kitchen Renovation; Establishment of a Project Fund
- Cash Balance Account
- Annual Reports
- Revisions of the GSLC Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions (see enclosed document)
- Report from the Safety Task Force

All Confirmed Members of GSLC have voice and vote at the Bi-Annual Meeting. We hope that you will all be in attendance for this important business. The 2018 Annual Report will be available online at our website (www.gslutheran.org) or in paper copy in the narthex beginning Sunday, October 28.

The Election of Council Members will be for six Council seats, one of which will be a Youth Member. The nominees are Paul Christensen, Marc Duclos, Carrie Escamilla, Ben Setzer, Mary Tucker and Carlie Epstein (Youth Member). Names and biographies of nominees will be available soon online or in paper copy in the entryway. Council Members continuing terms are: Gina Crittenden, Kristin Freeman, Cathy Mattocks, and Geoff Morton. Council Members whose terms are expiring and cannot seek re-election are: Karen Epstein and Ron Mixon. Council Members whose terms have expired but are seeking re-election are: Paul Christensen, Marc Duclos, and Carlie Epstein. It is always appropriate to make nominations from the floor, but it is important to have that person's consent before nominating them.

Please note that there will be only one worship service on Sunday, November 11 at 10:00am and no Sunday School. The annual meeting will follow the service and the annual Thanksgiving lunch will follow the meeting.

As a Confirmed Member of the congregation, please make plans to attend the Annual Meeting on Sunday, November 11, following the 10:00am service, and keep these important decisions in your prayers. The business of the meeting can only be enacted if a quorum of Confirmed Members is present. If possible, please access the information referred to in this letter online to help with printing costs.

We are called, gathered, and blessed to be a community and instrument of grace for all sheep of the Good Shepherd.

In Christ,

Barb Blanke
President

Paul W. Baumgartner
Pastor