CHILDRENS COMMUNION INSTRUCTION

Children's Communion Instruction will be Sunday, January 13th. Due to the changing ages at which children begin receiving communion, this is no longer titled First Communion class. While it is generally geared toward 1st and 2nd grade, if your child began taking communion earlier and you would like to go through this class now, or if you would like to explore if this is the time your child is ready to begin taking communion, please see the Sign up in Fellowship Hall about this class. This class will include instructional time, worship time and a wonderful meal as well, so the time is well spent. There will still be a recognition of those having their First Communion.

Pastor Karen Stephenson

We would like to welcome Pastor Karen Stephenson as our guest preacher this morning. Formally from the Chicago area, Karen currently lives in Atlanta. Karen's undergraduate education was completed at The University of Georgia and her Master of Divinity was completed at Emory Candler School of Theology. Karen can currently be found as pastor of the Atlanta Bar Church. Atlanta Bar Church is a community of sinners and saints who get together to have church in a bar. Their foundation beliefs are that God can be found everywhere, so they have a pretty liberal take on what constitutes church music. They don't claim to have things figured out, but like getting together to talk, sing, and have a few drinks as a good place to start.
