

Youth Sunday School Classes

Tiny Tots: Age 0 - Pre-K

What: Enrich growing minds with the love that Jesus has for them!

Contact: Stephanie Peters, Melina Thurmond

Where: Room 113

K-2nd Grade & 3rd-5th Grade

What: Learn more about the Gospel of the day. We will be using Spark! Lectionary as a resource for our classes this year.

Contact: Molly Maher, Jenny Champion, Sharron Ryan (K-2); Leanne Reynolds, Carrie Finney (3rd-5th)

Where: Room 111 (K-2nd); Room 115 (3rd –5th)

Middle School: 6th-8th Grade

What: Engage in more life-based conversations that will get youth to question and ponder their faith in the best way.

Contact: Deborah Ezell

Where: Room B8

Saints & Sinners: 9-12th Grade

What: We will spend classes preparing the way for life after high school, learn useful skills and test our knowledge of the Bible. We will plan exciting events for the upcoming months. All high school youth & friends are encouraged & welcome.

Contact: Tony Endozo, Melina Thurmond

Where: Room B1

A Parent's Perspective Class

Who: Parents with (or without) students attending
Sunday School.

What: Find tactical ways to create conversation with your youth and continue the Sunday
School lesson topic.
We are hoping that
this class will break down the wall of confusion and hierarchy of who knows the Bible better.

Contact: Kristin Freeman &
Elizabeth Fennell
Where: Room 120

Adult Sunday School Classes

Men In Mission

Who: Men of all ages

What: Roughly every week during the school year we gather together in community, as men of the congregation. We explore various study topics and discuss various needs in our community, church, and personal relationships. We often participate in outreach initiatives. We plan to finish “The Unfolding Gospel” by John P. Bowen and will be starting a new book in a few weeks called “Fortress Introduction to the Prophets” by Rodney R. Hutton. This book is called an “accessible entre into this fascinating aspect of Hebrew Bible studies”. Available for Kindle or paperback at your favorite book seller.

Contact: Rob Homer, Paul Christensen

Where: Room 116

Faith Stories

Who: Anyone

What: We find ways to connect our book study to our own life. Roughly every 2-3 months, we decide on a book to read and beginning digging deeper and finding ways to apply what’s being read to our own life. We have wonderful conversation and would encourage anyone to stop by for a class or two to see if it would be something that interests you.

Contact: Barb Kidder

A Parent’s Perspective (see back page)

Coffee & Conversation

Who: All are Welcome

What: Every week during the school year we meet to deepen our relationship with God and his Word. We are starting a new series: Call in the New Testament. Passages from several Gospels and Epistles will be studied. A Zoom option will be made available for those who are unable to attend in person

Contact: Ben Setzer

Where: Room 118

Thursday Morning Bible Study - Soul Keeping, Caring for the Most Important Part of You, by John Ortberg

When is the last time you thought about the state of your soul? John Ortberg guides you through several practices to restore your soul so you can experience a life of wholeness, balance, and hope.

Ortberg will help you connect more deeply with the God who gave you life and desires every day to bring more meaning, hope, and abundance to that life.

Pastor Rosy leads this study at 10 AM, Thursday mornings. There is a participant guide which can be purchased on Amazon (remember to use smile.amazon); however, copies will also be made available for each session. All are welcome.
