TIME AFTER PENTECOST — LECTIONARY 33

Year B, Complementary Series

FIRST READING: Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from Daniel.

the protector of your people, shall arise.

There shall be a time of anguish such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence.

But at that time your people shall be delivered,
everyone who is found written in the book.

²Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake,
some to everlasting life

and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

³Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

Word of God, word of life. or The word of the Lord.

PSALMODY: Psalm 16

SECOND READING: Hebrews 10:11-14 [15-18] 19-25

A reading from Hebrews.

¹¹Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins.

¹²But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins,
“he sat down at the right hand of God,”

¹³and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.”

¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

[¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, says the Lord:

I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds,”

¹⁷and then is added,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

¹⁸Where there is forgiveness of these,
there is no longer any offering for sin.]

¹⁹Therefore, my dear family,

since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

²⁰by the new and living way that Christ opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh),

²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

²²let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith,
with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

²³Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for the one who has promised is faithful.

²⁴And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some,

but encouraging one another,
and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Word of God, word of life. or The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL: Mark 13:1-8

The holy gospel according to Mark.

¹As [□]Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him,
“Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!”

²Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings?
Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

³When Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

⁴“Tell us, when will this be,
and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

⁵Then Jesus began to say to them,
“Beware that no one leads you astray.

⁶Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am the one!’
and they will lead many astray.

⁷When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed;
this must take place, but the end is still to come.

⁸For nation will rise against nation and country against country;
there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines.
This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

The gospel of the Lord.
