VISITORS and GUESTS

Please join us in Fellowship Hall following each service for coffee

A few more ways to get involved at Good Shepherd this month:

- Sign up for next Red Cross Blood Drive—August 9th at Redcrossblood.org
- Pray for youth heading back to school
- Pray for our world and it's leaders
- Donate clothing for The Drake Closet
- Recycle
- Donate some food for MUST barrels
- Pray for GSLC

Babies, Babies Everywhere!

A huge thank you for all the diapers and wipes this past month. These items are not covered by Food Stamps and therefore Inspiritus has a great need for families with little ones. Your contributions in conjunction with Thrivent Action team grants are such a blessing.

More details in the Sheep Buzz You can find the most recent edition under “Sheep Buzz Newsletters” under our “Home tab” at gslutheran.org.

FIRST COMMUNION CLASS Join us in the meeting room at 12:00 today.

NEW MEMBER CLASS Join us in room 115, next Sunday, at 9:45 AM. Plan to have your picture taken. 📷

SERMON SERIES

Next Sunday is the last of our four-week sermon series, The Tears of Things, shaped by Richard Rohr's latest work on the prophetic path—from righteous anger, through grief, into courageous, compassionate truth.

Each week, we reflect on the tension between judgment and mercy, between despair and hope, and the prophetic transformation that happens not in triumph, but in tears. Rohr writes that most prophets begin with outrage at injustice—but they do not stay there. True prophets evolve. They become bearers of love forged through lament.

You don't need to read the book to join us. A weekly study guide is included on the website, in the SheepBuzz and in print at church on the welcome desk.

Come sit with us in the “blue”—in the grief that doesn't end the story, but deepens it.
